Introduction

The allure of the tarot has changed over the years. The deck started in the 15th century as a simple card game of four suits and morphed over the years into a tool for meditation, inner reflection and divination.

The Ethereal Visions Tarot Deck consists of 80 cards that are broken into two sections—24 Major Arcana (with two new cards) and 56 Minor Arcana. This deck is based on the artist's own journey of inner reflection and meditations.

The Major Arcana

The Major Arcana (trump cards) are the foundation of the deck and tell the story of the Fool's journey. It reflects the story of spiritual awareness told through imagery.

0. The Fool

Astrological correspondence: Uranus

The Fool is the spirit of innocence in all of us as we begin our journey. This card may be at the beginning (birth) or the end (transformation) of our path. Each position marks the start of new beginnings where we are free to be creative, have boundless faith, and freely embrace opportunities!

Upright: Potential, new beginnings, opportunity, adventure

1. The Magician

He is telling you that you hold all the tools to manifest your desires into reality. Creativity, skill, focus and desire are the forces he reveals to you in order to accomplish any goal.

feminine spirit. She is the guardian of the unconscious who guides us to look inward and listen to our own feelings and intuition.
